A high-contrast, black-and-white photograph. In the upper portion of the frame, a person's hand is visible, holding a small, metallic object between their fingers. The object appears to have a textured, possibly serrated or engraved, surface. The background is dark and indistinct. Below the hand, there is a large, circular fingerprint with clearly defined ridges and valleys, suggesting it might be a latent print being examined. The overall image has a grainy, high-contrast quality, similar to a photocopy or a forensic photograph.

This block contains five square seal impressions arranged vertically. The top two seals are diamond-shaped. The characters within the seals are heavily stylized and appear to be in a form of ancient Chinese script. The bottom three seals are rectangular and also contain characters in a similar ancient script style.
